Re: Use of False Documents Provided Through Your Office By Asst. Attorney General
Paul Carter, Bar No. 014140
CIV 02 - 15874

Dear General Counsel:

I have been informed by my client, Anant Kumar Tripathi, who currently is incarcerated in the Arizona State Prison, Cook Unit, that on February 21, 2006 your office faxed documents to Paul Carter, used in CIV 02 15874 as evidence in response to a contempt citation filed by my client.

The documents were dated February 3, 2006 (and other documents) and are different from those issued to my client in that the copies to the court have a notation that property will not be destroyed as ordered by Judge Mark Armstrong. These documents offered into evidence are different from the documents given to my client in that those given to my client do not contain such notation.

Due to the fact that the notation referenced above (as Ordered by Judge Mark Armstrong) is central to the matter before the court, it is clear the documents were altered through the addition of said notation.

Upon my advice, my client has given one of the unaltered originals to his CO3 (Marlette) as part of the grievance process.

As required by The Rules Of Professional Conduct, I am also notifying The State Bar of Arizona that forged papers were used as evidence in court by legal counsel employed by the state of Arizona.

Very truly yours,
